Join us on Safari

Darlene Carlton and Janet Callen

In late March, 2014, we journeyed to Botswana, Africa for a twelve-day safari. Along the way we joined Darlene's friends, Ann and Bruce, in Atlanta. From Johannesburg, South Africa we flew to Maun, Botswana and a wonderful adventure began. Our first camp was Kalahari Plains, where we saw Lions and Cheetahs and Leopards, oh my! Here we met a Bushman, a Kori Bustard, the Pale Chanting Goshawk and many more birds and mammals. We traveled to Deception Valley, the site where Mark and Delia Owens spent eight years. Along the way, a herd??? of 45 giraffes. Next site was Duma Tau, and water travel. We watched a pack of Painted Wild Dogs chasing an Impala, and a very determined and hungry Spotted Hyena waiting for scraps to drop. Here were several species of Hornbills and Geese that sit in trees and Elephants. Our third camp was Xigeria where we were lucky enough to see the magnificent Pel's Fishing owl, a Giant Eagle owl, and Hippos among the water lilies. Our last camp was Kwetsana, where the Baboon sport apparently was watching humans come and go every day. Please join us for sunshine, many more birds and animals, including six species of Kingfisher and bush tea and cookies. We traveled with www.wilderness-safaris.com

Great Back Yard Bird Count

February 13-15, 2015

Go to: <http://gbbc.birdcount.org/get-started/>

A note to the City of Rocks Travelers.

Friends: Judy Waring and I have paid the lodging cost for both the lodge and the bunkhouse in full for the two nights we plan to stay. In the first week of April we will collect a deposit from everyone who plans to go, so that we can correctly gauge the number of beds we will have to have. At the present time, I believe there are 15 people who have expressed interest. In the meantime please send me your e-mail address and your telephone number. Then we can address the group. We plan to stay the first night in Boise, probably at La Quinta near the airport. Appears to be less expensive than downtown locations. Then we will travel via Bruneau Dunes, Thousand Springs and Hagerman Wildlife refuge to City. There is lodging in Burley Id, which is 51 miles from City; a Fairfield Inn and a Best Western. There are also campgrounds at City.

Anyone can join us for any portion of the trip, if they wish. And we have yet to plan the journey home. Thanks, Janet Callen

1. Register for the count or use your existing login name and password. If you have never participated in the Great Backyard Bird Count or any other Cornell Lab citizen-science project, you'll need to create a new account. If you already created an account for last year's GBBC, or if you're already registered with eBird or another Cornell Lab citizen-science project, you can use your existing login information

2. Count birds for at least 15 minutes on one or more days of the GBBC. You can count for longer than that if you wish! Count birds in as many places and on as many days as you like—one day, two days, or all four days. Submit a separate checklist for each new day, for each new location, or for the same location if you counted at a different time of day. Estimate the number of individuals of each species you saw during your count period.

3. Enter your results on the GBBC website by clicking "Submit Observations" on the home page. Or download the free GBBC BirdLog app to enter data on a mobile device. If you already participate in the eBird citizen-science project, please use eBird to submit your sightings during the GBBC. Your checklists will count toward the GBBC

Interest Survey for a Field Trip to Flathead Valley, Nine Pipes NWR, Montana

This is a tentative trip for March 13-14. We would stay one night at the Ninepipe Lodge. This would be a two-day trip to observe the courtship displays of Short-eared Owls, and view spring arrivals on the refuge. Please let Kris Buchler know if you are interested in going eagleroost@roadrunner.com or call 664-4739.
